

Dec. 18th: Andrea Atkinson: Nexus Resource Center, GreenRoundtable

Nexus, Green Build, and Build Boston in Review

Andrea is manager of NEXUS, the Building Resource Center at The Green Roundtable, the Massachusetts affiliate of the United States Green Building Council (USGBC). Nexus and The Green Roundtable recently worked with the USGBC to host the 2008 national convention in Boston, with an unprecedented number of attendees (over 25,000), speakers, and workshops.

Nexus and The Green Roundtable provide education and training to all: from homeowners to unions, legislators to design professionals, developers to lending institutions. Andrea will give an overview of the educational and professional opportunities at Nexus and at The Green Roundtable, as well as review the highlights of Green Build and emerging trends in the industry.

Location

The First Parish in Cambridge Unitarian Universalist, 3 Church Street Harvard Square Cambridge, MA

Time

Doors Open at 7:00 p.m.
Program Begins at 7:30 p.m.

Andrea joined the Green Roundtable in 2004, and was instrumental in establishing the NEXUS Green Building Resource Center. She currently manages all programs, staff and activities of NEXUS. Her work focuses on creating and improving systems and securing relationships that help to make NEXUS a comprehensive, free green building resource for all.

She holds a degree in International Relations with a focus on sustainable development from Boston University. Andrea has worked with the Integrative Design Collaborative, the U.S. Department of Energy and other organizations in Latin America and Africa.
